WORD

*Above all, put on love —
the perfect bond of unity.
Colossians 3:14*

Doing the right thing is often harder than doing the wrong thing. When we get in trouble or want to get our way it may be easier to lie than to be honest. When people hurt us it is much easier and seemingly much more satisfying to hold a grudge against them and strike back at them in anger. It is also usually easier to do what feels good even if what feels good is not always what is right. All of the above are things God's Word tells us not to do and in instances like those mentioned one could argue that it is easier to do what is wrong than it is to follow Jesus. Easier? Perhaps, but better, certainly not! Giving in to our fleshly desires may feel good for a moment, but over time they will destroy us. Lying, cheating, stealing, hating, and giving our body all it desires will eventually catch up with us and the things that felt good for a while will leave us feeling empty and bitter. God does not want us to feel empty and bitter, He wants us to feel joy and peace. The things that God commands us to do may be hard, but they are ultimately commands that if followed, will lead to a more satisfying result. The solution to our worldly struggles is love. When we are determined to love those around us, our previous sinful actions can be overcome. We will begin to deal with people honestly and selflessly. We will also begin to forgive those who have sinned against us. When we live like Jesus, we will love like Jesus, and when we love like Jesus we can be united in the perfect bond of love with all those around us. The love of Jesus is far better than the wages of sin. I hope you are living in His love today.
