Homemade Cinnamon Rolls

Prep: 25 min. Difficulty: Easy
Cook: 20-30 min. Serves: 6 people

Ingredients

- DOUGH
- 1 cup warm (not hot) milk

- FILLING
- ¼ cup butter, melted
- 1 cup brown sugar

1. Using a dough hook in a stand mixer, combine the warm milk, yeast, sugar, salt, butter, and egg on low.
2. Slowly add in flour.
3. Once the flour is incorporated, turn mixer to medium speed.
4. Add more flour if necessary. The dough should be soft and sticky but pull away from the side of bowl.

6. Grease a 9x13 baking pan.
7. Roll dough out to a 12x18 inch rectangle.

9. In a small bowl, combine the brown sugar and cinnamon.
10. Sprinkle mixture over buttered dough.
11. Roll up tightly lengthwise to make one long roll.
12. Use thread to cut dough into 12 (one inch) slices.
13. Place slices into greased pan.
14. Cover and let rise for about 45 minutes.
15. Preheat oven to 325 degrees.
16. Bake rolls for 20-30 minutes or till brown. (Time will depend on how hot and even your oven bakes.)

WORD

'What has been is what will be, and what has been done is what will be done; there is nothing new under the sun.'

Ecclesiastes 1:9

I find myself quoting Ecclesiastes 1:9 on a regular basis and we need to be reminded of what it is saying, especially in times like these with the coronavirus going around. We often experience things, sometimes major things, that throw us for a loop. As Americans many of us are blessed to have most everything we need and we many doctors and nurses to help keep us healthy and going strong. When we are faced with tough situations like these we may begin to panic and worry, but as Ecclesiastes says “there is nothing new under the sun.” This is not the first sickness to plague our world and it probably will not be the last. Things like this virus may be a rarity for us Americans, but they do sometimes come and eventually they will go. While it is good to be wise during times like these the sickness we should be most concerned about is not that of our body, but that of our heart. Our sin is a sickness with far worse consequences than a sore throat and cough. Thankfully God provides healing for us through His Son Jesus. Jesus is the great physician and He is just a prayer away. There is healing from your sin and it comes through Jesus. Don't worry about things of this world, they come and go as they always have, instead focus on things that are eternal.
