6 CHARACTERISTICS OF A GODLY MOTHER

Nurturing: As a mother comforts her son, so I will comfort you, and you will be comforted
Isaiah 66:13 HCSB

Humble: Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God, so that He may exalt you at the proper time, casting all your care on Him, because He cares about you.
1 Peter 56:7 HCSB

Dedicated: Many women are capable, but you surpass them all! Charm is deceptive and beauty is fleeting, but a woman who fears the Lord will be praised.
Proverbs 31:29-30 HCSB

Forgiving: All bitterness, anger and wrath, shouting and slander must be removed from you, along with all malice. And be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving one another, just as God also forgave you in Christ.
Ephesians 4:31-32 HCSB

Asking for Forgiveness: If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
1 John 1:9 HCSB

Love: Dear friends, let us love one another, because love is from God, and everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. The one who does not love does not know God, because God is love.
Acts 4:33 HCSB

Win the WORD

Do not be deceived: “Bad company corrupts good morals.”
1 Corinthians 15:33 HCSB

My wife and I have recently been watching the 1970's tv show The Rockford Files. Jim Rockford, a private investigator, always seems to find himself trying to solve case that someone else (usually through some cockamamie scheme) has gotten him into. His “friend” Angel is usually the culprit in getting Rockford tied up into a heap of trouble with the bad guys and the law. Miraculously however, Rockford always manages to solve the case, save the day, and get out of trouble. There is one thing The Rockford Files helps me to remember, beware of the company you hang around! 1 Corinthians 15:33 says “Bad company corrupts good morals.” It matters who we choose to spend our time with and should we not choose our friends wisely we may find ourself in the same boat as Rockford. It is likely that we to have made some “friends” that have lead us don't dark path. Even with bad friends, however we are the one that must ultimately make the choice between right and wrong. We must be careful who we spend our time with because who we surround ourself with most is who we will be most like. Make an effort today to surround yourself with better company. Company that will lead you in the way of righteousness that leads to Jesus and not the path of destruction.
