“...Return to Me” — this is the declaration of the Lord of Hosts — “and I will return to you, says the Lord of Hosts...”

Zechariah 1:3

Perhaps you have pondered the following question: Which came first, the chicken or the egg? I don't know who first posed this riddle, but it has certainly withstood the test of time and can still start up a good debate today. I will let you decide which you think came first and why, but whatever conclusion you come to it is almost certain that one had to come before the other. The question of “which comes first?” is one that we to wrestle with in other areas as well. Take for example forgiveness. If there is a problem between two people they may both be waiting for the other to apologize first. This waiting game can result in lots of anger and bitterness between the two parties. If we have been wronged it is best that we forgive first even if the other person hasn't apologized/repented. When we forgive those who have wronged us it means we release any anger and grudges we have been holding against them. When we forgive others it changes our heart, when they repent it changes theirs. Perhaps there is some forgiving or repentance you need to do today. Whichever it is, we need to be willing to be the first to make a move. In Zechariah 1:3 the Lord tells His people to return to Him and He will return to them. You may be saying today that you will follow the Lord when you see Him work in your life, but He may not be working in your life because you aren't seeking Him. You may be waiting on God to act first, but He already has! God sent Jesus to die on a cross for our sins while we were still sinners. God has already made the first move. He has already showed His love for us. The next move is yours. Will you repent of your sin and accept His love and forgiveness?
