Surely God is my salvation; I will trust and not be afraid. The Lord, the Lord himself, is my strength and my defense; he has become my salvation.

7 SCRIPTURES
WHEN YOU ARE ANXIOUS

6 Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. 7 And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:6-7

Peace I leave with you. My peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Your heart must not be troubled or fearful.

John 14:27

6 Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God, so that He may exalt you at the proper time, 7 casting all your care on Him, because He cares about you.

1 Peter 5:6-7

For God has not given us a spirit of fearfulness, but one of power, love, and sound judgment.

2 Timothy 1:7

Therefore don't worry about tomorrow, because tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

Matthew 6:34

When anxiety was great within me, your consolation brought me joy.

Psalms 94:19

Anxiety weighs down the heart, but a kind word cheers it up.

Proverbs 12:25

Win the WORD

For whatever was written in the past was written for our instruction, so that we may have hope through endurance and through the encouragement from the Scriptures.
Romans 15:4

You may have heard the phrase “history repeats itself”, or the oft quoted saying “those who forget the past are doomed to repeat it.” The idea of history repeating itself is nothing new, that same theme is echoed throughout the book of Ecclesiastes as we are continually reminded that there is nothing new under the sun. It seems as though we are sometimes quick to remember some things we need to forget and quick to forget some things we need to remember. Perhaps that is why the Bible repeats the same ideas on occasion. Many Bible stories are recorded in multiple passages of scripture in both the Old and New Testament. It is isn't that God had forgotten He had already put something in there already, but perhaps He repeated things because He knew we needed to be reminded of them. Romans 15:4 says “For whatever was written in the past was written for our instruction, so that we may have hope through endurance and through the encouragement from the Scriptures.” When you read the Bible try not to skip things you've read before in the past. God may want you to remind you of something in the past to help prepare you for something in the future.
