BAGS OF LOVE UPDATE

Special thanks to everyone who has donated and helped with the Bags of Love ministry. We received 83 sleeping bags and were able to pack 90 bags of items to help the homeless in New Orleans.

COTTAGE PRAYER MEETING

Each year the week prior to revival we hold prayer meetings each night to pray for the upcoming revival. If you would like to host a prayer meeting at your home please make sure to sign up by Sunday October 2

SHOEBOX MINISTRY

There are only about 6 weeks left to pack shoeboxes. We have packed over 400 so far, but there are many more to pack. If you would like to help with this please let Diane Van Norman know. For each box that is packed there is a cost of $10 for shipping. When making 1,000+ boxes it is a big expense. If you have been looking for a way to help with this ministry we can always use help with shipping.

Win the WORD

For God alone, O my soul, wait in silence, for my hope is from him.

Psalm 62:5 ESV

I have heard people speak of writers block. I don't know exactly how one would define writers block, and even though I am not a writer, I think I have experienced such a condition. In fact I am experiencing such a condition this week. Even now as I write this I find that my mind could best be described as "empty". It is not that I am suddenly devoid of past memories or knowledge, but forming those memories and knowledge into a coherent column for this newsletter or into an effective sermon for this Sunday morning is proving to be difficult. I would venture to say that I am not alone in feeling this way and it is likely that writers don't hold a monopoly on writers block. Anyone who has ever had to write a book or column, prepare a Sunday school lesson or sermon, or prepare any kind of speech or presentation, has probably come to a mental road block. The well of ideas seems to run dry and there is no obvious direction in which way you should proceed. The harder you try to think, the more difficult it is to come up with something. Even worse, your deadline is approaching and it as if you are playing a game of hide and seek with your due date, "ready or not here I come!" Thankfully I have discovered throughout the years that these times pass. Perhaps you would not label my condition as writers block, but insanity! If so, pray for me! On the other hand, maybe you know exactly what I am talking about! If so, then you will be encouraged to know that you are not alone. I said all of that to say this, there are days when in the midst of a mental block that I sit in the silence of my mind with no clear direction. In those times I have learned to simply wait. Because I know that in the silence, I am not alone, but that God is with me and will see me though it. Sometimes we simply must wait on the Lord.
